

Matter Appoints Kim Rosenkilde to Board Amid Growing Opportunities in ESG Data Market

October 30, 2025

LONDON and COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Oct. 30, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Matter, an innovative ESG data company focused on delivering sustainability data, analytics, and insights to the investment industry and a wholly owned subsidiary of Diginex Limited ("Diginex") [NASDAQ: DGNX], today announced the appointment of Kim Rosenkilde as a new member of its Board of Directors, effective immediately.

This appointment comes at a pivotal time for Matter, following its acquisition by Diginex in early October 2025, which has bolstered its mission to deliver trusted, transparent ESG analytics powered by AI, blockchain, and machine learning. As part of the Diginex ecosystem, Matter will continue to empower investors, asset managers, and institutions with actionable insights into SDG alignment, regulatory compliance, financed emissions, and portfolio sustainability, which we believe will enable smarter and, more responsible decision-making in a rapidly evolving regulatory landscape. This comes amid robust growth in the ESG data management market, which is expected to expand from an estimated US$ 1.31 billion in 2025 to approximately US$ 4.27 billion by 2032, at a forecasted compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 17.4%.

"We are thrilled to welcome Kim to Matter's Board," said Niels Fibæk-Jensen, CEO and a Board member of Matter. "His proven track record in ESG investing aligns perfectly with our mission to deliver transparent, actionable sustainability insights. As part of Matter, this addition strengthens our ability to innovate and support global organizations in achieving their sustainability goals."

Kim Rosenkilde brings over two decades of experience in global finance and investments. Most recently serving as Group Chief Investment Officer at Singlife (Singapore Life Holdings), Rosenkilde has been a vocal advocate for sustainable finance, emphasizing the energy transition as "the biggest opportunity of our time." His career spans liquidity provision to central banks, sovereign wealth funds, asset managers, and hedge funds, with a focus on integrating ESG principles into investment strategies. Rosenkilde has spoken at high-profile forums on themes of sustainability and resilience, and he has championed initiatives to unlock private capital for Europe's tech and green future. His strategic vision will be instrumental in guiding Matter's ESG analyses which are available on SimCorp, as well as for ingestion into BlackRock Aladdin.

"Joining Matter at this transformative moment is a natural fit," said Kim Rosenkilde. "The convergence of AI-driven ESG data and blockchain transparency is reshaping investments, and I'm eager to contribute to Matter's leadership in this space."

The Matter Board of Directors also consists of Mark Blick, CEO of Diginex, and Niels Fibæk-Jensen.

This strategic appointment underscores Matter's commitment to assembling world-class talent to meet the growing demand for verifiable sustainability insights. As part of Diginex, we expect that Matter will benefit from the Diginex's cutting-edge technologies to deliver unparalleled depth and breadth in ESG coverage, from individual issuers to entire portfolios.
