Registered shareholders will receive further instructions from the Company's transfer agent.

The Company remains focused on executing its strategic priorities and advancing its long-term business objectives.

Receipt of Nasdaq Minimum Bid Price Letter

On March 23, 2026, the Company received a letter from the Listing Qualifications Department of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") notifying the Company that the closing bid price per share for its ordinary shares, $0.00005 par value ("Ordinary Shares") was below $1.00 for a period of 30 consecutive business days and that the Company did not meet the minimum bid price requirement set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2). The Nasdaq notification letter does not result in the immediate delisting of the Company's Ordinary Shares, and the shares will continue to trade uninterrupted under the symbol "DGNX."

Pursuant to Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company has a period of one hundred eighty (180) calendar days, or until September 21, 2026 (the "Compliance Period"), to regain compliance with Nasdaq's minimum bid price requirement. If at any time during the Compliance Period, the closing bid price per share of the Company's Ordinary Shares is at least $1.00 for a minimum of ten (10) consecutive business days, Nasdaq will provide the Company with written confirmation of compliance and the matter will be closed.

In the event the Company does not regain compliance by September 21, 2026, the Company may be eligible for an additional 180 calendar day grace period. To qualify, the Company will be required to meet the continued listing requirement for market value of publicly held shares and all other initial listing standards for The Nasdaq Capital Market, with the exception of the bid price requirement, and will need to provide written notice of its intention to cure the deficiency during the second compliance period, including by effecting a reverse stock split, if necessary. However, in the event that the company is not permitted an additional grace period, the Company's Ordinary Shares may be delisted from The Nasdaq Capital Market.
